2.0 Call to Order and Welcome
Board Chair James W. Heavener called the meeting to order at 4:30 p.m. EDT and welcomed all Trustees, the administration and all in attendance at the meeting. Chair Heavener extended a special welcome to incoming Trustees Ian Green and Katie Vogel Anderson.

3.0 Public Comment
Vice President and General Counsel Amy Hass noted that five individuals were confirmed to speak on an agenda item in accordance with Board policy and procedures. The speakers addressed the Board on topics including commencement and the diversity climate at the University and OPS workers.

4.0 President’s Report
President Fuchs gave his report to the Board. Highlights of which included:
• Senior leadership hires including Antonio Farias, Chief Diversity Officer; Amy Hass, Vice President and General Counsel; Mark Kaplan, Vice President for Government and Community Relations; Onye Ozuzu, Dean of the College of the Arts and Lee Anne Chesterfield, Director of the Harn Museum.
• UF Online was ranked #1 in May by the Online Colleges website and, as previously announced, will partner with Walmart to allow Walmart employees to pursue associate and bachelor’s degrees at minimal cost to the employee.
• UF professor Jack Davis was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for his book The Gulf: The Making of an American Sea.
• The University has created a task force focused on improving the commencement experience.

President Fuchs next discussed a new collaborative initiative for the University called Platform for Life. He noted the profound technological changes we have seen in the past decades and observed that, while we cannot predict the society of the future, UF can lead the discussion and shape the journey. He noted UF’s role in technological milestones from the invention of the first digital computer to the recent creation of bioglass and Trusopt, a glaucoma medication.

He informed the Board that the colleges and units will be joining together in bold, transformative efforts that the University is calling “moonshots.” These are being developed and will be presented along with concrete goals and deadlines. He closed with a video on Platform for Life.

5.0 Comments of the Incoming Chair of the Board
Vice Chair Hosseini asked Chair Heavener to join him at the podium, where he was presented with a plaque in honor of his service as Chair of the Board. Vice Chair Hosseini thanked Chair Heavener for his valuable time and financial support of the institution, which have both uniquely advanced the University. Chair Heavener next addressed the Board. He expressed his admiration for the university administration and noted that the university has everything it needs to achieve Top 5. He noted that a University of Florida education is the best investment in the nation.
